

Faith-based Care in a Loving Environment

The new Cathedral Health Care Center, being a faith-based nursing facility, is the home of choice for residents, family and staff. We are conveniently located two blocks East of Memorial Hospital at 520 West 9th Street in Jasper.

Did you know Cathedral Health Care Center is also home to one of the top tourist attractions in our community? Come see The Grotto and take a tour of our newly renovated facility.

Once you are here you will see the positive difference our staff of health care professionals and our facility make in the lives of our residents.
